

Fashion Design — Admission to the Course

Fashion Design — About the Course

Grace Wales Bonner, Professor and Head of the Fashion Department

The four-year diploma program encourages students to develop their creative style and artistic vision while gaining essential technical, communication, and research skills. In one-to-one tutorials and through conceptual guidance with the internationally acclaimed fashion designers at the helm of the Department, students generate ideas, develop concepts and create and present individual, innovative and visionary womenswear, menswear or non-binary fashion. The main course, the so-called central artistic subject, focuses on developing a holistic design vision by exploring traditional European fashion knowledge in dialogue with a global cultural heritage and an awareness of sustainable design choices.

Graduates either found their own fashion labels or launch careers at existing national and international labels and/or fashion houses.

Thanks to the continued high quality of the training it offers and its many successful graduates, the Fashion Department is one of the most important fashion education institutions worldwide.

— STUDY AND LANGUAGE
All lectures held in the Fashion Department are in German and/or English. The internationally acclaimed fashion designers and professors of the Fashion Department teach in English.
Generally, lectures outside the Fashion Department, teaching at the Angewandte, are held in German. For this reason, students must produce evidence of a sufficient knowledge of the German language following their second semester, level B2 is recommended.
